

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

VICTOR PASCUAL-VILLA,
AMBER HUGHES, and
JOSE ERIVES-RIOS,

Defendants.

8:14CR255

ORDER

This matter is before the court on the motion for an extension of time by defendant Victor Pascual-Villa (Pascual-Villa) (Filing No. 32). Pascual-Villa seeks an additional time in which to file pretrial motions in accordance with the progression order. Pascual-Villa has filed an affidavit wherein he consents to the motion and acknowledges he understands the additional time may be excludable time for the purposes of the Speedy Trial Act (Filing No. 33). Pascual-Villa's counsel represents that government's counsel has no objection to the motion. Upon consideration, the motion will be granted and the pretrial motion deadline will be extended as to all defendants.

IT IS ORDERED:

Defendant Pascual-Villa's motion for an extension of time (Filing No. 32) is granted. All defendants are given until on or before September 22, 2014, in which to file pretrial motions pursuant to the progression order. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between August 22, 2014, and September 22, 2014, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason defendants' counsel require additional time to adequately prepare the case, taking into consideration due diligence of counsel, and the novelty and complexity of this case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B).

DATED this 22nd day of August, 2014.
